

BRIG. GEN. ROBERT L. SCOTT, JR. MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

The four-person scramble is held annually at an exclusive Macon country club in honor of the achievements of Brig. Gen. Robert L. Scott, Jr., Macon's hometown hero during World War II. Golfer perks include: breakfast or lunch in the clubhouse, greens fee, riding cart, range balls, and commemorative golf memorabilia.

CONTACT: Teresa Davis | tdavis@museumofaviation.org | 478-222-7537

Presenting $10,000

- 8 players for 1 round of golf
- Golf swag for 8 players
- Singular Presenting Sponsor banner
- Speaking opportunity at event
- Top billing in full page appreciation ad
- Highlighted in event marketing
- Highlighted in social media marketing
- Logo / Link on website for 1 year
- Recognition on monitors at clubhouse

Super $5,000

- 3 players for 1 round of golf
- Golf swag for 8 players
- Logo displayed on Super Sponsor banner
- Recognition at event
- Lead billing in full page appreciation ad
- Logo / Link on website for 1 year
- Recognition on monitors at clubhouse

Tournament $2,500

- 4 players for 1 round of golf
- Golf swag for 4 players
- Recognition on Tournament Sponsor banner
- Major billing in full page appreciation ad
- Logo on website for 1 year
- Recognition on monitors at clubhouse

Flag $1,000

- 2 players for 1 round of golf
- Golf swag for 2 players
- Name / Logo on memento hole pin flag
- Intermediate billing in full page appreciation ad
- Logo on website for 1 year
- Recognition on monitors at clubhouse

Hole $500

- 1 player for 1 round of golf
- Golf swag for 1 player
- Logo on sign at tee box
- Billing in full page appreciation ad
- Logo on website for 1 year
- Recognition on monitors at clubhouse

