HAYNEVILLE JAMFEST LINE UP

Stillwater

Back in 1972 while in high school in Warner Robins, Sebie Lacey, Rob Walker, Eddie Stone and Mike Causey were performing together in a group called "Highway." Another local and well-known musician, bassist and vocalist Al Scarborough was also performing in the Warner Robins music scene. They formed the group Stillwater in 1973 and soon after the band got a recording contract with Capricorn Records in Macon, releasing two albums; Stillwater in 1977 and I Reserve the Right in 1978. "Mind Bender," reached No. 46 on the Billboard Hot 100 in February of 1978. Members of the band continue to perform and showcase their musical talents throughout the Middle Georgia area.

Wet Willie

Wet Willie is an American band from Mobile, Alabama. They are best known for their hit "Keep On Smilin'," but their list includes a number of charted songs in the 1970s utilizing their soulful brand of Southern rock. Other hits include "Country Side of Life," Everything That 'Cha Do," and "Leona." Core members are Jimmy Hall, vocals, harmonica, saxophone; Jimmy's brother Jack Hall on bass; Jimmy's sister Donna Hall singing background vocals; T.K. Lively as drummer. In 2012 Wet Willie released a new live CD "Miles of Smiles" on the Hittin' the Note Records label.

Jack Pearson Band

Guitarist, singer, songwriter, producer, musician... this only begins to describe Jack Pearson. He is best known as an A-list blues/rock lead and slide guitarist, but Jack is also a soulful, creative songwriter and artist in his own right. He was a member of The Allman Brothers Band and has worked with music legends from the world of jazz, rock, blues and country including The Allman Brothers Band, Gregg Allman, Vince Gill, Jimmy Buffet, Mac McAnally, Amy Grant, Groove Holme, Faith Hill, Ronnie Milsap, Jimmy Hall, Lee Ann Womack, Martina McBride, Trace Adkins, Faith Hill, and the list goes on.

The Eli Carlan Band

Eli Carlan was born in Athens, Georgia. He began his musical journey at the age of fifteen performing in bands across the southeast. In February of 2014, he signed with Tate Music Group. He released his debut album R&B on August 12th, 2014. His band mates include Robin Hines, Bass/Guitar/Vocals and Ricky Baker, Drums.
