The Has Beens

The Has Beens are four of the original members of the famed Stillwater band and one original member of the Doc Holliday Band. Back in 1972 while in high school in Warner Robins, Sebie Lacey, Rob Walker, Eddie Stone and Mike Causey were performing together in a group called "Highway." Another local and well-known musician, bassist and vocalist Al Scarborough was also performing in the Warner Robins music scene.

They formed the group Stillwater in 1973 and soon after the band got a recording contract with Capricorn Records in Macon, releasing two albums; Stillwater in 1977 and I Reserve the Right in 1978. "Mind Bender," reached No. 46 on the Billboard Hot 100 in February of 1978. After 10 years of performing, Stillwater broke up. Members of the band continued to perform and showcase their musical talents throughout the Middle Georgia area.

Sometime back in the '90s, the Has Beens were formed. Members were four of the original members of Stillwater; Sebie Lacey (drums and lead vocals), Rob Walker (lead guitar and vocals), Al Scarborough (bass and lead vocals), Mike Causey (lead guitar and vocals) and one original member of the Doc Holliday Band, Eddie Stone (keyboards,guitar and lead vocals).
